

Dear Parents,

Assalamu Alikum wa Rahmatu Allahi wa Barakatuh,

Inshallah, the Arabic department will be holding an exciting Arabic event next week from (FEBRUARY 13 –16). This event will be about the different colors to let students appreciate them, as well as practice their Arabic skills.

Monday: PINK

Tuesday: BROWN

Wednesday: PURPLE

Thursday: YOUR FAVORITE COLOR

Students need to wear something every day that connects to the color, such as hats, pants, dresses, shirts, skirts, shoes, socks, etc.

Additionally, students need to use the computer to search something that contains the color such as fruits, juice, flowers, pictures, birds, fish, insects, trees, plants, flags, sweets, food, etc. These must be in Arabic.

PK-3, PK-4, Kindergarten, first grade, and second grade need to wear the colors based on the appropriate days. I also need volunteers to bring something to school related to the specific color of that day, and explain it in Arabic. This will help the students with their Arabic skills.

Students in third grade to eighth grade will need to wear the colors based on the appropriate days and they must bring in objects according to the appropriate colors and write a paragraph in Arabic based on what they have brought in. I also need volunteers to come in and read already prepared stories in Arabic to the students. These students need to research their objects on the computer and print it, and then present it to different classes as well as during the assembly. These explanations must be in Arabic, with help from the Arabic teachers. On Thursday, each student should wear their favorite color.

The Arabic teachers will speak with the students in Arabic the whole week (in the assemblies, social hall, Arabic classes, lunch time, salah time).
